October 30, 2006,
Supervised Release revoked, credit for time served (4 months), 2 years supervised release, 120 days of electronic monitoring.Type of Supervision: Supervised ReleaseDate Supervision Commenced: October 30, 2006*NON-COMPLIANCE SUMMARY

The offender has not complied with the following condition(s) of supervision:

Violation Number	Nature of Noncompliance
#1	Standard Condition: You shall not commit another Federal, state, or local crime and shall not illegally possess a controlled substance; 1) On April 23, 2007, Dewberry was arrested on the charge of Driving Under Suspension. On June 28, 2007, Dewberry pled no contest, and was found guilty. He was sentenced to serve 30 days confinement. 2) On June 9, 2007, Dewberry was arrested on charges of Contempt of Court (child support) and Domestic Violence. On July 3, 2007, the Domestic Violence charge was dismissed. However, Dewberry was found in contempt of court on the child support issue due to not having come up with $900.00 for his arrearage. He was ordered to serve 60 days confinement.

U.S. Probation Officer Action:

Dewberry was actively paying his current child support, but was unable to come up with an additional $900.00 towards the arrearage he owes. As a result of this confinement, he lost his job, and is currently job seeking. He was also convicted of Driving Under Suspension and received 30 days confinement. In both instances, the punishment levied in Hamilton County Municipal Court and Hamilton County Juvenile Court is adequate punishment given the situations. The domestic violence charge had no validity to it at all, and was just one of his children's mother being upset when she learned that Dewberry has plans to marry his current girlfriend and tried to retaliate. She did not show up for court after filing the charges. Therefore, this officer is respectfully recommending no action be taken for these convictions.
